Coláiste Clavin, Longwood, Co. Meath is a state, co-educational, multidenominational post primary school underpinned by the core values of;

- Excellence in Education;
- Care;
- Respect;
- Equality;
- Community

Louth and Meath Education and Training Board (LMETB) is the largest comprehensive educational provider in the Louth and Meath region with a range of educational services from primary to post primary and further education and training. Louth and Meath Education and Training Board is committed to excellence and innovation in the education of young people and adults through the provision of dynamic services delivered by professional staff.

LMETB manages four Community National Schools, a Centre for European Schooling, seventeen post primary schools including one school with Post Leaving Certificate provision and two dedicated Post Leaving Certificate colleges. LMETB is also joint patron of six Community Schools located in Ardee, Ashbourne, Athboy, Drogheda, Kells and Trim.

Each LMETB school and college has proven itself as a centre of excellence in teaching, learning and assessment in its local community. LMETB schools provide a welcoming atmosphere for students, staff, parents and the local communities in which they operate. The LMETB school/college experience is one where a warm relationship exists between teachers and learners and the atmosphere in lessons is positive and conducive to learning. A broad and balanced curriculum with a diverse range of co-curricular and extra-curricular activities where the aptitudes of students are central to its design is available in LMETB schools. Each of these schools has built a very positive reputation in the local communities in which they operate, and each school continues to enjoy strong parental support and a high level of satisfaction with the quality of teaching, learning and assessment.

Coláiste Clavin is a bright vibrant growing school located in the rural landscape of Longwood in County Meath. Although a beautiful new building, with state of the art facilities our roots in Education are long established in Longwood with our predecessor school St. Fintina's providing educational opportunity for countless generations of people from the vicinity.

Our key aim in Coláiste Clavin is to provide a quality and holistic education to meet the needs of all our students. We have a very committed and enthusiastic staff who work exceedingly hard to help students achieve their potential in the school. We set out to ensure that our students work and learn within a positive, caring and encouraging environment where everyone is treated with respect and dignity.

We work hard to develop strong positive relationships with parents and members of the local community. Together teachers and management focus on achieving academic excellence. Students of all abilities are enabled to reach their full potential regardless of any challenges that might be before them. We are proud of the top grades and points achieved in the State Examinations by our students, and we will continue to strive to develop a wider range of options and subjects for students in our school.

It is important to understand that our school does not provide 'religious instruction' and therefore the legal requirement to advise of the option to opt-out of religious instruction does not arise in this school. It is also important to understand the distinction between 'religious instruction' and religious education':

- Religious instruction is a term used in Ireland to indicate instruction in accordance with the rites, practices and teachings of a particular religion or denomination for pupils of that religious tradition. Religious instruction may be provided in a denominational school setting.
- Religious education is open to all pupils regardless of their commitment to any particular religion or worldview. It seeks to contribute to the spiritual and moral development of all students equally.

As ETB schools are 'multi-denominational', Coláiste Clavin supports the provision of religious education that caters for all students regardless of their religious or non-religious beliefs and therefore does not provide religious instruction of any particular religion or belief.

Every student is encouraged to participate fully in school life, to get involved in sporting and various extra-curricular activities as we regard these as an important part of their integration into school life and preparation for careers in later life. It is our vision that every student will benefit hugely from their educational opportunity in Coláiste Clavin and leave us as mature, confident and well educated young people who will progress to their chosen studies, career and lives as well rounded citizens

7.1 ADMISSION PROVISIONS FOR THE SPECIAL CLASSES

Coláiste Clavin has two Special Classes, established to cater for the special educational needs of Students with Autism/Autistic Spectrum Disorders.

Only applications in respect of Students whose needs fall within the category of special educational needs provided for by the Special Class will be considered. In this respect, the school requires that the needs of the Student be verified in a Relevant report which has been prepared within the 12 months immediately preceding the Student's application to the Special class.

Where the Special Class in Coláiste Clavin is not oversubscribed, all Students whose needs fall within the category of special educational needs provided for by the Special Class will be offered a place in the Special Class, subject to sections 4.7 and 4.9.

7.1.1 Oversubscription:

When the number of applications exceeds the number of places available, the published selection criteria as set out at section 7.1.2 below will apply and a waiting list shall be compiled which shall remain valid only for the school year in respect of which the applications are made. Where Coláiste Clavin is in a position to offer further school places that become available in the Special Class for and during that academic year, places will be offered in accordance with the order of priority in which Students have been placed on the waiting list.

Where an application is made on behalf of a Student for both the Special Class and a mainstream year group, and his/her application for one but not both is successful, s/he will remain in the same position on the waiting list for the group to which s/he was not successful, regardless of whether the Applicant accepts the place in the group to which the Student was successful.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Student does not receive a place in the Special Class for a given academic year, but s/he wishes to be considered for admission to the Special Class in the following academic year, a new application must be made on behalf of that Student during the dates specified by the school as being the period when it will accept applications for the Special Class.

If a transfer student is offered a place in the Special Class from the waiting list, the offer is subject to there being a place available in the relevant year group for that Student. If there is not a place available in the relevant year group, the next person on the waiting list for the Special Class will be considered for the place in question but this will not change the initial student's place on the waiting list for the Special Class for the remainder of that school year. i.e. if another place subsequently became available in the Special Class during that year, the initial student at the top of the waiting list would be considered first, but again subject to there being a place in the relevant year group for that Student.

For clarity, even if a place becomes available in a given mainstream year group, if there is a waiting list for that year group, the Students on the list have first refusal at the place in the year group irrespective of any matters relating to the Special Class.

Where the school is oversubscribed, any selection criteria that are not included in this Admission Policy shall not be considered in determining whether or not a Student is admitted to the school.

7.1.2 Selection criteria in order of priority:

Applications to the Special Classes will only be considered if the Student's needs fall within the specified category of special educational needs provided for by this class. Subject to this requirement, in the event of oversubscription, the following criteria for admission to the Special Class will apply:

- 7.2.1.1 If the Student has siblings currently enrolled in the school
- 7.1.2.2 If the student resides in the catchment area;
- 7.1.2.3 Whether the student attended feed primary school as listed in this Policy :

Subsequently, where the school still has places available the remaining Applicants are considered against the second criterion and those Applicants who meet this criterion will be offered a place within the Special Class. This process is continuously carried out until all available places have been offered and accepted.

Where two or more applications are tied in the foregoing selection process, Coláiste Clavin School will apply a random lottery to assign any available places in the Special Class, or on the waiting list, to those applications.

N.B. The number of places available in a year group is subject to reduction in the event that a placement(s) in the Special Class/es are given to Student/s from that year group. i.e. the selection process for the Special Class will be completed before the selection process for the mainstream group and the number of Students who are offered a place in the Special Class will be the number by which the places in the relevant mainstream year groups are reduced.

7.1.4 Late applications:

This process will continue throughout third and fourth rounds etc. until all places within the Special Classes have been filled.

7.1.6 Acceptance of a place:

The Applicant shall indicate acceptance of an offer by fully completing and returning the Acceptance Form by the date set out in the School Admission Notice, or within 2 weeks of issuing by the school if it is a late application or if it is a second/third-round offer. This includes indicating whether or not s/he has applied for and is awaiting confirmation of an offer of admission from another school.

Failure to fully complete and return the Acceptance Form to the school by the date set out in the School Admission Notice, or within 2 weeks of issuing by the school if it is a late application or if it is a second/third-round offer, may result in withdrawal of an offer, in line with the grounds for withdrawal of an offer as set out below.

7.1.7 Refusal:

Where a Student in respect of whom an application is being sought has not been offered a school place, the Applicant will be provided in writing with:

- 7.1.7.1 The reasons that the Student was not offered a place in Coláiste Clavin.
- 7.1.7.2 Details of the Student's ranking against the published selection Criteria.
- 7.1.7.3 Details of the Student's place on the waiting list, if applicable, and
- 7.1.7.4 Details of the Applicant's right to appeal the decision

In addition to the conditions for consideration of an application as set out at 4.7 and 4.9, an offer of admission may not be made where:

7.1.8 Withdrawal of an offer

An offer of admission may be withdrawn where:
